From the Executive Voices conversations

Wrestling with print frequency

In this first report from the conversations at the just-concluded Executive Voices, the topic is print publication frequency. The consensus: It's not a matter of whether — it's all about when and how.

Innovative journalism projects sought for RJI's flexible fellowship program

Is there a journalism challenge you or your newsroom has wanted to tackle, but haven't had the time or resources to focus on the idea? Could the project benefit the industry as a whole in some way and strengthen democracy through better journalism? If you answered "yes" to both of those questions, here's an idea worth pursuing.
