

$1 Million Dollar Hurricane Irma Community Business Recovery Program

Today, Sun Coast Media Group, the parent company of Sun Newspapers, announced a million dollar disaster relief program for local businesses. For any business closed due to storm damage beyond Monday, 9/18/2017, Sun Coast Media Group is offering a "Get Back on Your Feet Program".

For every day the business is out beyond the first week due to storm damage, Sun Coast Media is offering $200 a day of free advertising in Sun Coast Media Group newspapers. The program will offer advertising in our newspapers up to a value of $5,000 per business with a grand total limit of $1,000,000. This is for any business whether they had previously advertised with a Sun Coast Media newspaper or not but cannot be used to pay for prior advertising. To qualify, business must be a commercially zoned storefront, office or building that is open to the public. Must be located in the county of this newspaper.

Sun Coast Media Group is a family- and employee-owned business whose shareholders live in and work in the communities they serve. David Dunn-Rankin, CEO of Sun Coast Media Group, said that, "Our mission is to support the local business community. The corner store is the cornerstone of any great community and we need to get back in business."

Sincerely,

Glen Nickerson, Publisher
