

FEEDBACK FROM READERS:

From our weekly Cheers & Jeers Column-

- Cheers to the Idaho Press-Tribune for the new Lazy Sunday insert. A nice addition, especially the return of comics that have been dropped from the daily paper.
- Cheers to the Idaho Press-Tribune for our new “Lazy Sunday” section of our Idaho Press-Tribune Sunday papers. It not only contains our brightly colored, easier to read television guide but we have our comics and game puzzles all together, as well. The first things I snag from my Sunday papers are the coupons now it will be the “Lazy Sunday” section, as well. Wonderful Sunday paper! Reading the new guide will take a little getting used to but we hope it continues making our Sundays more enjoyable! Can our “Lazy Sunday” section be folded and inserted by itself though?
- Cheers and Jeers to Idaho Press Tribune for the new Lazy Sunday section of the newspaper. It looks great and seems to be a good grab and read for Sunday with all the puzzles, new television guide and comics. But for us old-time subscribers we really like the funny papers alone. We have used the funnies papers for over 70 years to wrap birthday gifts and add a laugh with the comics. Like opening a package of old time bubble gum. How about a Saturday comics page or an additional comics on Sunday? Can't we keep both?

Contact Information:

Matt Davison

Publisher

Idaho Press-Tribune

(208) 465-8101

mdavison@idahopress.com