Murphey bringing Cowboy Christmas to Pines Theater

By CASEY SIZEMORE

The Lufkin News

Michael Martin Murphev is bringing his 24th annual Cowboy Christmas to the Pines Theater Monday night.

Murphey and the Rio Grande Band will have appeared in 12 cities in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Colorado before Christmas Day, according to a press release. The tradition of Murphey's tour began in the early '90s after he published an album of "cowboy Christmas songs." He has since published two other holiday albums and a DVD, which are available at michaelmartinmurphey.com.

"There is a special relationship the Christmas story has to rural communities, farmers and ranchers," Murphey said in the release. "God first sent an angel to livestock people — the shepherds in the field. Whether you're a believer or not, the story emphasizes the fact that the news Music Hall of Fame and winner of the birth of the Savior of the world is not given to the royalty or politicians, but it goes to the lowest people on the totem pole.

"To me, this is an underscoring of the fact that Jesus came for all people, all races and all classes. Jesus is also traditionally depicted as a shepherd, and many of his parables are agricultural stories about farming, livestock and how the earth works. That means that rural people should feel a significant part of the Christmas message because they were chosen to hear that story first."

With more than 40 years experience in the music industry, some of Murphey's country hits include "Wildfire," "Carolina In The Pines," "Long Line of Love," "What's Forever For," "Geronimo's Cadillac" and "Cowboy Logic." Murphey is also a multi-Grammy nominee and inductee into the Western Music Hall of Fame, the Texas County of the Texas Music Award for Best Album.

Michael Martin Murphey and his band, the Rio Grande Band, are bringing the holiday spirit with a country twist to Lufkin. Murphy and the band will take the stage at Pines Theater at 7 p.m. Monday for a stop on his annual Cowboy Christmas tour.

Murphy and the Rio Grande Band take the stage at 7 p.m.

Tickets are available at the Pines Theater for $30-40.

Lufkin Community Band presenting winter concert today

The Lufkin Community Band, conducted by David E. Smith. will present its annual "A Winter/Christmas Concert" today in the Temple Theater at the Angelina Center for the Arts on the Angelina College campus.

Following the concert opening with the band's traditional performance of the national anthem with the presentation of the colors, the Lufkin Community Band will begin the winter portion of the concert with the overture of the Gilbert and Sullivan masterpiece "The Mikado."

Following this will be new works by two American composers. The first is "Rippling Watercolors" by the award-winning composer, conductor, producer and performer Brian Balmages: the work explores the extensive colors, harmonies and emotional range of the modern concert band.

Next will be "Goin' Home" arranged by Nathan Hervey, who uses the rich harmony and beautiful melody of the slow movement "Largo Theme" of Antonin Dvorak's "New World Symphony" to create another way to enjoy this familiar piece.

The winter portion of the concert will close with "The Liberty Bell March" by John Philip

This will be followed with "Deck the Halls," featuring the full brass section of the band in this traditional Welsh carol, arranged by John Rutter. The Christmas presentation will then slip into a quieter mood with a work arranged by Jim Mahaffey. In this medley, "A Tranquil Noel" he brings his skill to set together "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Coventry Carol" and

"Away in a Manger."

Angelina College music instructor Jimmy Battle will conduct this piece.

The concert will close with "Amazing Grace." Roger Cichy's exquisite setting of this everpopular melody is combined with a lovely original lullaby.

Tickets are $5 for adults, $4 for seniors, students and children.

Find out who will be this year's Heisman Trophy winner

And the winner of the 2017 Heisman Trophy is ...?

That is something we don't know currently. But we will definitely find out during the presentation at 7 p.m. Saturday on ESPN.

Louisville quarterback Lamer Jackson — the reigning Heisman Trophy winner — will likely be invited to the ceremony in New York for a second straight year, but the chances of him winning are slim.

The favorite to take home the trophy is Oklahoma quarterback Baker Mayfield. Stanford running back Bryce Love also has a strong case.

Others in consideration are San Diego State running back Rashaad Penny, Wisconsin running back Saquon Barkley, Auburn running back Kerryon Johnson, Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate, Oklahoma State quarterback Mason Rudolph and Houston defensive tackle Ed Oliver.

Here are some other sporting events to watch this week.

On TV

- ■ Pro golf: PGA Tour World Hero Challenge, noon Sunday, NBC — This will be the final round of Tiger Woods' first golf tournament since February.
- Pro football: Carolina at New Orleans, 3:25 p.m. Sunday, FOX — New Orleans is coming off a tough test against the Los Angeles Rams. A loss ended an eight-game winning streak for the Saints. Now. the Saints (8-3) take on the 8-3 Panthers
- ■ College basketball: Villanova vs. Gonzaga, 6 p.m.

Tuesday, ESPN — The two teams that faced North Carolina in the past two national title games will square off at Madison Square Garden.

ing contest, or if Virginia will wear down the Mountaineers.

BRANDON OGDEN

- ■ College basketball: Texas A&M vs. Arizona, 8 p.m. Tuesday, ESPN2 — Just last week, this looked like it would be a top 10 showdown, but then Arizona inexplicably lost three straight games.
- Pro basketball: Los Angeles Lakers at Philadelphia, 7 p.m. Thursday, TNT — This will be the second and final meeting between the two teams this season. The first meeting ended in a 115-109 Philadelphia win as Joel Embiid scored a career-high 46 points.
- ■ College football: Army vs. Navy, 2 p.m. Saturday, CBS — There's one Division I FBS game this week, and it's this game. Army won last season after Navy had won 14 straight in the series.

Local

Jingle Bell Jubilee, Thursday through Saturday in Zavalla — Zavalla's annual basketball tournament will take place this weekend. If you've never attended this event, do yourself a favor and take a trip out to Zavalla for a day or two, or three.

■ High school basketball:

Brandon Ogden's email address is

The Carol Burnett 50th Anniversary Special

KHOU 1 7 p.m.; KYTX 1 7 p.m.

Still "so glad we had this time together," one of television's all-time comedy greats marks a half-century since her classic show's debut with this new special recorded on that program's original Los Angeles soundstage. Burnett's longtime cohorts Vicki Lawrence and Lyle Waggoner also are on hand for the celebration, as are guests and admirers including Jim Carrey, Kristin Chenoweth, Martin Short, Bernadette Peters, Stephen Colbert, Jane Lynch and Harry Connick Jr. Separate segments honor Tim Conway and the late Harvey Korman.

Movie: My Christmas Prince

LIFE 7 p.m., 11:01 p.m.

Samantha (Alexis Knapp) has a holiday bombshell waiting for her when she makes her annual Christmas trip home to Wyoming: Her boyfriend Alex, a European diplomat, actually is a prince who is next in line to the throne of his tiny country. Suddenly their relationship becomes far more complicated, because staying with him means giving up her beloved teaching job in Manhattan in favor of living in the relentless spotlight. Callum Alexander, Parker Stevenson and Pamela Sue Martin also star.

Alexis Knapp and Callum Alexander

The Last Man on Earth

KFXK 3 8:30 p.m.

Jasper's (guest star Keith Williams) unusual behavior concerns Todd (Mel Rodriguez), to the point where he asks Tandy (Will Forte), for counsel in the new episode "Not Appropriate for Miners." Carol and Erica (Kristen Schaal, Cleopatra Coleman) have different interests in Jasper, as they realize he may be the only prospective beau for their children — and each competes to win his favor on her respective kid's behalf. January Jones and Mary Steenburgen also star.

Good Behavior

TNT 9 p.m., 10 p.m.

The title of the new episode "Stay Beautiful" is misleading in some respects, since it finds Javier (Juan Diego Botto) undertaking one of the strangest, not to mention most gruesome, jobs he has ever dared to

CBS, and the star herself, celebrate 'The Carol Burnett Show's' 50th anniversary

Fifty years after her classic comedyvariety series debuted, Carol Burnett is still so glad she and viewers had that time together.

The entertainment icon returns to the soundstage where she and comrades Vicki Lawrence, Harvey Korman, Tim Conway and Lyle Waggoner did the show in CBS' two-hour "Carol Burnett 50th Anniversary Special" Sunday, Dec. 3. Lawrence and Waggoner also appear in the program, though Conway was "under the weather" per Burnett at the time of the October taping.

The late Korman is recalled by guests including Jay Leno and Bill Hader in a segment devoted to his antics, and many others participate in helping Burnett mark the half-century milestone. Among them: Bernadette Peters (who was the first guest ever booked for the series), Jim Carrey, Kristin Chenoweth, Harry Connick Jr., Martin Short, Jane Lynch, Stephen Colbert and Maya Rudolph. Bob Mackie, who designed countless costumes for "The Carol Burnett Show," also appears.

"It was pretty overwhelming," the everfriendly, much-honored Burnett says of doing the special. A winner of 20-plus Emmy Awards, "The Carol Burnett Show" ended its run in 1978, and the title star has returned to its studio a number of times since: "We did some specials and the 25th-anniversary reunion show there. Still, every time I go back and get on that stage, I think of all the wonderful memories that I have."

Some of those, naturally, are related to the question-and-answer session Burnett always opened her program with (and which she still does in the in-person show that she tours with). She has another of those openings in the new special, and she reveals of the questions, "Two of them are asked by Tom Selleck and Pat Boone! They were in the audience. And then, a lady asked about my grandmother and my pulling my ear. I didn't do a lot of those, though, because the show was

BY JAY BOBBIN

That includes Burnett's eventual rendering of "I'm So Glad We Had This Time Together" (written by her thenhusband, "Carol Burnett Show" executive producer Joe Hamilton), and she notes that someone sings it with her for a special reason. "Harry Connick Jr. was born the day the show premiered – Sept. 11, 1967 -- so I said, 'Will you join me in the theme song?' And he said, 'I've been waiting 50 years to do this.' And he flew out (to Los Angeles) to do it. I was so thrilled."

so chock-full of stuff we had to get to."

A sitcom pilot Burnett made for ABC (with Amy Poehler as an executive producer) is being redeveloped, but "The Carol Burnett Show" remains present in home-video releases, on YouTube and in repeats repackaged as "Carol Burnett and Friends" and shown weeknights on Me-TV.

"As a result, I'm getting fan mail from 9- and 10-year-olds," she muses. "They'll draw me pictures on their lined school paper, and it is so cute! And when I go out and do live shows every so often, I get audience members ranging from 9 to 90. I'll keep doing those as long as I'm mobile."

In focus

"The Crown: Season 2," www.netflix.com/title/80025678

The second season of this drama about the reign of Queen Elizabeth II (Claire Foy) continues with more political and social events that marked the second half of the 20th century, including Britain fighting an illegal war in Egypt, a scandal that took down Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and the revolutionary era of the 1960s. The 10-episode season begins streaming Friday.

"Inspiring Woman," www.pbs. org/wnet/americanmasters/inspiring-woman/

PBS' Emmy-winning arts program "American Masters" comes forth with its first web offering, a six-part documentary series spotlighting inspiring female influencers. The opening episode profiles Tracy Clayton, a writer, humorist and host of the BuzzFeed podcast "Another Round." Other subjects include New York chef Angie Mar, software developer and entrepreneur Sara Chipps and web-cam performance artist Molly Soda.

In focus

"Shut Eye: Season 2," www.hulu.com/shut-eye

The second season of this drama finds Charlie Haverford (Jeffrey Donovan) still plagued by visions as he attempts to get away from Fonso, Rita (Isabella Rossellini) and Eduardo (David Zayas). Meanwhile, wife Linda (KaDee Strickland) struggles with her concern over Charlie's sanity and her grief over Gina's death. The 10-episode second season begins streaming Wednesday.

Webb gets his game face on for Travel Channel's 'Man v. Food'

Talk to any competitive eater and they'll tell you that, much like a professional athlete, what they do requires training.

They work out, watch what they eat, get plenty of rest and hydrate. A lot.

Same holds true for someone who eats large quantities of food for a living, as does Casey Webb, who returns for his second season as host of the Travel Channel series "Man v. Food," starting Monday, Dec. 4. In taking on the show's culinary challenges, be they downing a 2 1/2 pound burrito complete with scalding hot sauce or consuming a plate-sized prime rib, he finds having a healthy routine invaluable in attempting something that is by definition unhealthy.

And like a professional athlete, a good shot of adrenaline helps, too, in getting him to the finish line. That's where the crowd that attends these tapings comes in.

"I kid you not," Webb says, "the crowd really makes a difference between winning and losing and at least going the distance on these challenges. They really bring it and they bring it even more to the point where I rallied when I thought I wasn't going to finish something and I have and I was able to just, let's say, defeat it. ... It's like a gladiator sport of crazy proportions and that's kind of how I'm treating it. I'll walk out into the mega-dome and battle it out for however long – the 30 minutes to an hour I have."

BY GEORGE DICKIE

The new season takes Webb across the country to locales such as Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Seattle, San Diego, Boise (Idaho), Grand Rapids (Mich.) and Daytona (Fla.) to push his digestive tract to the limit and down meals outsized and overheated. In Monday's season opener, Webb lands in Los Angeles to try the 2 1/2 pound zombie burrito with hot sauce, and Boston to attempt a 4 1/2 pound Irish breakfast.

What book are you currently reading?

"I just picked it up this week for the road. It's Leo Buscaglia, it's called 'Love.' He was a professor and he wrote this book in the '70s about the topic of love."

What did you have for dinner last night?

"In my neighborhood, I had a chicken shawarma. Really good."

What is your next project?

"My next project is potentially another show outside of 'MvS.' I didn't give away too much. Under wraps. (laughs)"

RESTAURANT REVIEW

Clear Springs serving up bold flavors in a cool setting

By BRIE BRADFORD The Lufkin News

NACOGDOCHES - A few months ago, I reviewed Auntie Pasta's, the Italian eatery that occupies half of the old grocery warehouse that was home to operatic-themed restaurant Rossini's back in the 1970s and '80s. On a recent weekend, a friend and I dined at Clear Springs Cafe, the mini-chain Southern seafood and steak house that occupies the front half of that historic building.

The setting is one of the coolest in Nacogdoches, with redand blue-checkered table cloths. hardwood floors and all manner of taxidermy and antique signs covering the brick walls of what was once the first refrigerated warehouse west of the Mississippi River. And the food — as it is at any of the restaurants owned by Richard and Barbara DeWitt, including 1st City Cafe in the Fredonia Hotel — is outstanding.

We started with one of the great crab cakes we fell in love with at Auntie Pasta's — panseared, served in a lemon butter sauce and topped with remoulade and pico de gallo — and an order of Stingers — jumbo-sized fresh jalapeños stuffed with a blend of catfish and shrimp. deep-fried in a delicious breading and served with a really good buttermilk ranch dressing. I'm sure the flavor varies slightly from pepper to pepper and day to day, but the ones we had were almost sweet, with a mild heat that was scarcely discernible. The restaurant is famous for its enormous platters of hand-breaded onion rings, but those Stingers are even better in my book.

For my entree, I went with one of their daily specials, the Creole Mushroom Chicken, as recommended by our friendly and attentive server. Kevin. The chicken breast was big and juicy enough for two meals — and smothered in a savory, slightly spicy Creole sauce with sauteed mushrooms and onions and red pepper flakes. The dish came with buttered Texas toast and a choice of two sides, and I went with a loaded baked potato with plenty of shredded cheddar and seasonal steamed vegetables that included squash, zucchini, purple onions and broccoli.

I added a skewer of Shrimp Brochette to my order for roughly $6 more, and those jumbo bacon-wrapped shrimp stuffed with mild jalapeños and grilled were juicy and delicious dipped in drawn butter.

I also added a skewer of Shrimp Brochette to my order for roughly $6 more, and those jumbo bacon-wrapped shrimp stuffed with mild jalapeños and grilled were juicy and delicious dipped in drawn butter.

My friend also selected one of the daily specials for her meal: the Southwest Meatloaf. Much like Auntie Pasta's, Clear Springs doesn't shy away from big flavors, and this meatloaf had it in spades. The item is a regular on sister restaurant Gru-

MOVIE REVIEW

Sweet Nativity story shines bright at the box office

It's that time of year again. Time to turn on the Hallmark channel and get bombarded by a neverending slew of Christmas movies. Expect to drown in an endless sea of cheerful movies about the magical season of snow, presents, family and Jolly Old Saint Nick.

WADE MODISETTE

Sadly, though, it is much more difficult to find a decent movie. let alone an animated one, about the birth of Christ, which is the whole reason we celebrate this holiday in the first place. Well, fortunately for us all, "The Star" has arrived.

Setting itself apart from other, more serious Christmas movies, this film follows the story from the animals' perspectives. Or, if vou will, it allows the creatures with tails to tell the tale.

We follow a young donkey named Bo as he dreams of a life of importance and leisure. He escapes his back-breaking mill work, only to find shelter with a young couple of newlyweds, falling instantly in love. When the kids have to travel to Bethlehem for a census, just as the woman is about to give birth. Bo and his four-legged friends must find a way to help them make it safely and deliver the most important baby in human history. Sorry to give the whole plot away, but, honestly, if you can't figure out the plot of this movie, you haven't been paying attention in Sunday School.

An adventurous donkey named Bo goes on an epic journey while using a star for navigation, which eventually leads him to the birth of Jesus. Along the way, he is joined by a number of animal companions, including a lost sheep, a proud dove and a trio of wisecracking camels.

Put out by Affirm Films, the movie is cute and beautifully animated, boasting an outstanding cast including Steven Yeun of "Walking Dead" fame (how's that for irony), Zachary Levi, Keegan-Michael Key, Aidy Bryant, Gina Rodriguez, Christopher Plummer, Tracy Morgan, Oprah Winfrey and Tyler

Perry. They truly put together an ensemble cast for this, and everyone does a great job. The characters are very lovable, especially Mary with her adorable little freckles and Joseph with his messy hair and stubble.

There is no questionable content here. Very little violence, nothing even remotely intense. No sex, nudity, bad language, drug or alcohol use ... it's everything you'd expect from a movie about the birth of baby Jesus.

The movie is extremely funny and fun. Lots of smart, subtle Bible jokes for the adults, like when Elizabeth tells Zechariah, "I think I liked it better when you couldn't talk." This movie warmed our hearts and kept us laughing throughout. The characters are all silly and likable, leaving the kids to easily pick their favorite critters and quote them for several days later.

Let's be honest: Sadly, faithbased movies, especially those made for kids, tend to be kinda lame, with a few exceptions. It is easy for a valiant attempt at an enjoyable movie to suffer from the lack of funding and professional writing. Most of them end up falling far short of their true potential. Not this one, though. Although they didn't have a blockbuster budget to go on, the studio made the best product they could, and their efforts really paid off.

There were a few theology, historical controversies in the film. There are three wise men and they show up to the manger on the night of Jesus' birth, at the same time that a single big, mean soldier tracks down the young Messiah for extermination. You can choose to get bogged down in such details if you want to, but the subject matter was handled by a group of people who clearly love. revere and respect the story of Christ's birth. The results are nothing short of spectacular. endearing and heartwarming. And the plethora of life lessons and Christian values embodied by the actions of the film's stars more than make up for the occasional semantic issue.

I rate it an enthusiastic 9/10. Fun and safe for all ages. Go see this movie, already.

Rated PG for some thematic elements

Restaurant

Continued from Page 11G ene River Grill's menu, where it's described as "a traditional American favorite with a touch of Santa Fe." The meatloaf includes kernels of corn and is topped with a spicy marinara sauce, and comes with Texas toast, garlic mashed potatoes and green beans, or your choice of any two sides. But be forewarned: This dish has some serious heat going on.

We cooled things off with some of their wonderful peach cobbler topped with Blue Bunny vanilla ice cream dusted in cinnamon. And our server noted that all of their desserts — with the exception of the New Yorkstyle cheesecake — are homemade.

The blazing hot Southwest Meatloaf with kernels of corn — a regular item on sister restaurant Gruene River Grill's menu, where it's described as "a traditional American favorite with a touch of Santa Fe" — was a daily special on a recent visit to Clear Springs Care.

National Christmas Tree Lighting

HALL 6 p.m.

For the second year, Hallmark Channel partners with the National Park Foundation to present exclusive coverage of the Nov. 30 lighting of the National Christmas Tree on the Ellipse at President's Park in Washington, D.C. Performers include The Beach Boys, Wynonna, The Texas Tenors, Craig Campbell and Us the Duo, the youth group Boys II Bow Ties, the U.S. Navy Band and the music group that has established itself firmly as a Christmas tradition: Mannheim Steamroller, led by Chip Davis.

The Gifted

KFXK 6 8 p.m.

The mutants try to come to the aid of others of their kind who have been captured by Sentinel Services in the new episode "outfoX." Andy and Lauren (Percy Hynes White, Natalie Alyn Lind) learn details from Reed (Stephen Moyer) about their family history that could change much of what they've long believed. Amy Acker, Sean Teale, Jamie Chung, Coby Bell, Emma Dumont and Blair Redford also star.

Ben Bailey

RelationShep

BRAVO 9 p.m., 11:30 p.m.

This new spinoff of "Southern Charm" revolves around strapping bachelor Shep Rose, who at age 37 decides it's time to get serious about finding Ms. Right. Not surprisingly, his romantic requirements are pretty extensive — in essence, he's looking for a lingerie model with an astrophysicist's brain — but he's willing and financially able to travel pretty much anywhere a pal spots a likely candidate for him. Serious prospects will have to pass muster with his Charleston friends, too.

Cash Cab

DISC 9:02 p.m.

The meter is running once more in comic Ben Bailey's New York cab, where he challenges unsuspecting passengers to answer trivia questions for cash, as this quirky game show starts Season 8. There's a new wrinkle, though, as comic David Steinberg joins the show behind the scenes: In these new episodes, the contestants often will find themselves joined and assisted by such stars as Matthew Perry and Brooke Shields.

Will & Grace

KPRC 2 8 p.m.; KETK 1 8 p.m.

The new episode "A Gay Olde Christmas" makes a big time leap backward, as the gang wishes they could experience the holidays in New York as it was long ago. And ... presto! They're magically transported back to the early 20th century, but for any and all of the era's charm, the society of that time definitely doesn't mesh with the quartet's sensibilities. Debra Messing, Eric McCormack, Megan Mullally and Sean Hayes star.

The Curse of Oak Island

HIST 8 p.m., 10:03 p.m., 12:03 a.m.

In a new episode called "Bone Dry," the discovery of an old document appears to offer some very real new clues that could point to the exact location of the coveted Money Pit. Later, the "fellowship of the dig" stumbles across another, more cryptic discovery as they reach previously uncharted depths in their explora-

Debra Messing

The Mayor

KTRE 4 8:30 p.m.; KTRK 4 8:30

With rapper E-40 as a guest star (portraying himself), music is guaranteed by the new episode "Monuments Man." Courtney (Brandon Micheal Hall) tries to prevent a legendary showplace from having to shut down over financial struggles by staging a festival to raise the needed funds. However, the plan runs into political opposition. Dina (Yvette Nicole Brown) hits a snag in her new role as choir director. Lea Michele also stars.

The Hunt for the Zodiac Killer

HIST 9:03 p.m.

The team's hunt shifts into high gear as the FBI releases previously tightly classified documents pertaining to the maddeningly elusive Zodiac Killer in the new episode "The Secret FBI Files." A handwriting analyst succeeds in connecting the Zodiac's dispatches to a taunting letter that was mailed 3,000 miles away, in Albany, N.Y. Meanwhile, the code team has a major breakthrough on the Z340 cypher.

Dynasty

KYTX2 13 8 p.m.

It's the holiday season in Atlanta
— not to mention everywhere else
— but as might be expected, that doesn't necessarily guarantee joyous times for the Carringtons in the new episode "The Best Things in Life."
Fallon (Elizabeth Gillies) continues to grapple with a recent heartbreak, while Cristal (Nathalie Kelley) may be in for one when Blake (Grant Show) discovers certain things about her personal history.

Star

KFXK 6 8 p.m.

Carlotta (Queen Latifah) keeps a close watch on her family, even as her relationship with Maurice (guest star Lance Gross) deepens, in the new episode "A House Divided." A radio showcase for the label's artists backfires. Noah, Alex and Star (Luke James, Ryan Destiny, Jude Demorest) get closer to an implosion of their love triangle. Benjamin Bratt, Brittany O'Grady and Michael Michele also star.

Word Search Solution

SYFY 9 p.m., 11:59 p.m.

Most fans probably know Christopher Meloni primarily from his intense dramatic work on "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" and "Oz," but the actor gets to show off his formidable comic chops in this new adaptation of a graphic novel by Grant Morrison and Darick Robertson. Meloni stars as Nick Sax, a drunken and corrupt ex-cop whose life is turned around by the surreal intervention of Happy (voice of Patton Oswalt), a tiny, imaginary and relentlessly chipper winged horse.

Knightfall

HIST 9:01 p.m., 10:05 p.m.

Looking to duplicate the formidable success of "Vikings," this 10-part scripted historical action drama goes inside the Knights Templar, the medieval military order entrusted with protecting the most precious relics in Christianity. "You'd Know What to Do," the series premiere, opens in the 13th century, after the fall of the city of Acre, the Templar's last stronghold in the Holy Land. Landry (Tom Cullen), a knight, fears that the Order has lost its way. Padraic Delaney and Simon Merrells also star.

Movie: Psych: The Movie

USA 7 p.m., 10:02 p.m.

Faux psychic detective Shawn Spencer (James Roday) and his associate and BFF Burton "Gus" Guster (Dule Hill) open a new office in San Francisco — dubbed "psychphrancisco" — in this new TV movie sequel to the long-running mystery comedy series. The duo's first new case presents itself when a mystery assailant targets a member of their inner circle. Most of the series regulars, including Maggie Lawson and Kirsten Nelson, return.

Mom

KHOU 1 8:01 p.m.; KYTX 1 8:01 p.m.

Arguably still best-known from his run on "Wings," Steven Weber has done a lot of guest-star work in recent television seasons, and he adds this show to his resume with the new episode "Smooth Jazz and a Weird Floaty Eye." He plays Adam's (William Fichtner) estranged brother, a source of interest for Bonnie (Allison Janney) — but things get problematic when he arrives and takes a shine to Christy (Anna Faris).

James Roday

The Orville

KFXK 3 8:01 p.m.

Fans of Seth MacFarlane's sci-fi series shouldn't be alarmed that its first season is ending this relatively early with the story "Mad Idolatry": It's already been renewed for Season 2. As she and Ed (MacFarlane) debate reviving their personal relationship, Kelly (Adrianne Palicki) crashes — along with Isaac and Gordon (Mark Jackson, Scott Grimes) — on a planet whose fate she has to make a decision about. Penny Johnson Jerald and Halston Sage also star.

Life in Pieces

KHOU 11 8:30 p.m.; KYTX 1 8:30 p.m.

Determined to become ore of a friend to Tyler, Heather (Betsy Brandt) isn't prepared for the turn the situation eventually takes in the new episode "Waffle Permission Kidless Boyfriend." Matt and Colleen's (Thomas Sadoski, Angelique Cabral) plan to trade their wedding gifts for cash backfires. Tim (Dan Bakkedahl) keeps too close a watch on Samantha and her beau. James Brolin, Dianne Wiest, Colin Hanks and Zoe Lister-Jones also star.

THE LUFKIN NEWS SUNDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2017

19G

Blindspot

KPRC ② 7 p.m.; KETK ⑤ 7 p.m.

A movie set becomes the surprising destination for the team members as they try to dismantle a terrorist scheme in the new episode "Adoring Suspect." Roman (Luke Mitchell) uses information he has on Jane (Jaimie Alexander) to manipulate Weller (Sullivan Stapleton). Mary Stuart Masterson, Ennis Esmer and Tori Anderson continue their guest roles. Rob Brown and Audrey Esparza also star.

Jane The Virgin

KYTX2 1 8 p.m.

A book tour becomes a bit too populated for Jane's (Gina Rodriguez) comfort in the new "Chapter Seventy-One," as both Xo and Alba (Andrea Navedo, Ivonne Coll) tag along with her. The situation devolves quickly, making all three women debate how to proceed. Minding Mateo in Jane's absence yields mixed results for Rafael and Rogelio (Justin Baldoni, Jaime Camil). Petra (Yael Grobglas) tries to keep control over the hotel.

Sullivan Stapleton

Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D.

KTRE 3 8:01 p.m.; KTRK 3 8:01 p.m.

Having been through what they experienced together earlier, Daisy (Chloe Bennet) has a lot invested in Simmons (Elizabeth Henstridge) ... making the rescue of the latter woman imperative for her in the new episode "A Life Spent." In the course of that attempt, Daisy could end up making the ultimate sacrifice. Clark Gregg, Ming-Na Wen and Henry Simmons also star.

The Exorcist

KFXK ⑤ 8:01 p.m.

If you know the book or movie that inspired this series, you know how desperate the battle became between the demon the priests trying to drive it out. Tomas (Alfonso Herrera) is in a similar position in the new episode "Ritual & Repetition," as the effort to save Andy (John Cho) becomes critical. The entire island, including the children of the foster home, ends up imperiled. Ben Daniels and Li Jun Li also star.

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer

KHOU 1 7 p.m.; KYTX 1 7 p.m.

The beloved "Animagic" tale of the most famous reindeer of all offers a thoughtful lesson about discrimina-tion. Young Rudolph is teased by the other reindeer and excluded from their games because his nose is different. His taunters sing a different tune, though, when Rudolph uses the trait to keep Christmas from being can-celed. Burl Ives is the voice of Sam the Snowman, who narrates the story and renders the title tune (of course) plus "A Holly Jolly Christmas."

Heisman Trophy Presentation

ESPN 7 p.m.

Perhaps the greatest single trophy in all of sports is awarded for the 53rd time to the most outstanding college football player. Most would agree this season that Penn State running back Saquon Barkley is that player. Last year's winner, Lamar Jackson of Louisville, is also in the hunt. A repeat for Jackson would make him the second player to win two Heismans, a feat reached only by Ohio State's Archie Griffin in 1974 and 1975.

Movie: Logan

HBO 7 p.m.

Set in 2029, this 2017 installment in the "X-Men" film series finds Hugh Jackman returning to his role as Wolverine. Here, however, the character has grown older and even more world-weary, protecting his biological daughter, Laura (Dafne Keen), and his old friend and former mentor Professor X (Patrick Stewart), who is seriously ill. Meanwhile, diverse dark forces threaten their safety. Richard E. Grant, Boyd Holbrook and Stephen Merchant also star in the film, which drew mostly glowing reviews.

Movie: The Christmas Cottage

HALL 7 p.m.

Lacey (Merritt Patterson), a successful building designer, takes a break from her frenzied schedule to be maid of honor in her friend Ava's (Brittney Wilson) wedding. The occasion leads her to reconnect with Ean (Steve Lund), her old flame, with whom she decorates the cottage in which the newly-weds will spend their honeymoon. According to lore, the cottage brings love to all who stay there, and sparks begin to rekindle between Ean and Lacey in this new holiday romance.

Dirk Gently's Holistic Detective Agency

BBCA 8 p.m., 11 p.m.

The Mage (John Hannah) moves to put his endgame into play as Wendimooor falls into chaos in the new "Trouble Is Bad." His action puts both worlds in dire peril and forces Dirk's (Samuel Barnett) band of heroes to confront the villains who have been shadowing and harassing them all season. As Dirk struggles to fulfill the prophecy, Todd and Amanda (Elijah Wood, Hannah Marks) set aside their differences to help him. Jade Eshete and Tyler Labine also star.

"DESPICABLE ME 3"

Happily domesticated now, Gru and his wife Lucy (voices by Steve Carell and Kristen Wiig) are tossed out of the Anti-Villain League after they're outsmarted by an enemy aptly named Bratt (who has the voice of Trey Parker, of "South Park" fame) in this entertaining second sequel to the animated comedy hit. As they try to redeem themselves, the couple crosses paths with Gru's twin brother Dru (also with Carell's voice) and the two brothers' mother (voice by Julie Andrews). A sign that Gru has gone somewhat soft is his relationship with the youngsters that he now calls his own - and Lucy tries to - plus the Minions, who still are here despite having had their own movie. DVD extras: "making-of" documentaries; deleted scene; Pharrell Williams music video; sing-along; "Minion Moments"; "The Secret Life of Kyle" mini-movie.  (PG: AS) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

"AMERICAN ASSASSIN"

Edward Zwick and Marshall Herskovitz who made television's acclaimed "thirtysomething" and "Once and Again" were among the screenwriters on this action tale about a personally haunted man (Dylan O'Brien, "The Maze Runner") who's given a chance to join an elite counterterrorism team headed by a Cold War veteran (Michael Keaton, achieving much by adding his sly wit to a somewhat predictable role). The new operative's first mission is to help track down missing plutonium before it can reach intended buyers in Iran. Sanaa Lathan, Taylor Kitsch and television "Poirot" David Suchet also star. DVD extra: Q&A session with O'Brien and Kitsch. ★★★ (R: AS, N, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

"TWIN PEAKS: A LIMITED EVENT SERIES"

After false starts and behind-the-scenes drama that saw series co-creator David Lynch drop out of the project for a while, this Showtime revival of the famously quirky cult-classic show finally arrived this year, with Lynch directing all 18 episodes. Also billed collectively as "The Third Season," the stories restore Kyle MacLachlan to the role of FBI Special Agent Dale Cooper. To give too many details would be an injustice – as if we could do that with complete accuracy, thanks to the ever-challenging plot – so we'll just leave it that many of the other original stars also return, from Madchen Amick, James Marshall, Dana Ashbrook and Sherilyn Fenn to David Duchovny, Peggy Lipton, Richard Beymer and "Log Lady" Catherine E. Coulson (who passed after filming her work here, as did Miguel Ferrer). Laura Dern, Richard Chamberlain and Ashley Judd also appear. DVD extra: "making-of" documentary. ***

(Not rated: AS, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray)

"THE SIMPSONS: THE EIGHTEENTH SEASON"

The recurring character Fat Tony (voiced by Joe Mantegna and featured in the first tale here) gets his day as the subject on the cover of this latest home-video release from the long-running, animated Fox sitcom. It's likely a relief for fans to see this come to the market, since for a while, it appeared that no more of the series would be issued on home video.  (Not rated: AS)

"FARGO: YEAR THREE"

The offbeat FX series inspired by the Oscarwinning 1966 Coen-brothers movie rebooted itself again for this season, bringing another actor whose series-television involvement is rare – Ewan McGregor – to dual roles as brothers, one of whom plans to steal from the other, with very unexpected consequences. The would-be thief is a probation officer whose scheme involves the parolee he's romantically involved with (Mary Elizabeth Winstead). Carrie Coon ("The Leftovers"), David Thewlis, Michael Stuhlbarg, Scoot

McNairy, Shea Whigham and Mary McDonnell ("Major Crimes") also are in the ensemble cast.  (Not rated: AS, P, V)

"ONE DAY AT A TIME: THE COMPLETE SERIES"

"This is it ..." for fans of the original,
Norman Lear-produced 1975-84 CBS
sitcom that introduced one of television's most popular and enduring stars, Valerie Bertinelli. She and Mackenzie Phillips play the daughters of a divorcee (Bonnie Franklin) who has her hands full raising them as well as readjusting to life as a single. Pat Harrington Jr. won an Emmy for the series and has many humorous moments as their apartment-building superintendent Schneider, who fancies himself the ultimate ladies' man.

Cirque Dreams Holidaze show set for Wednesday

By PAM STOKES

The Lufkin News

Although Cirque Dreams' production of "Holidaze" is sold out, it is not too late to purchase Rush tickets at the box office window on Wednesday night at the Temple Theater.

Thirty performers from all over the world are set to perform in a production that has been described as "breathtaking, jawdropping and gravity-defying."

"The show is all about holiday ornaments that come to life and celebrate the magic of the holiday season through their amazing athletic and artistic feats," said Jenn Sierra-Grobbelaar, director of marking and media relations for Cirque Dreams.

Holidaze is brimming with talented singers, original music and seasonal favorites, including snowmen, penguins, angels, reindeer, toy soldiers, gingerbread men, ornaments and, last but not least, Santa.

Eye candy and visual treats galore await those attending.

More than 300 costumes, adorned in Swarobski crystals, handmade by their own designers and seamstresses and created in the Cirque Dreams production facility in Pompano Beach, Florida, are part of the show.

This is the 10th anniversary season of the production, and Sierra-Grobbeleaar said this is "a big, lavish ornate production with something for everyone."

Sierra-Grobbelaar toured for several years with the production company, having started as the company manager, and said she has seen how much the production has grown and evolved over the years.

"It's gratifying to bring our performance and production to audiences across the country and bring 'Holidaze' to audiences in our own backyard," she said.

Part of the Angelina Arts Performing Arts series, the production is set to begin at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Rush tickets may be purchased for $20 from 6:30-7:25 p.m., said Ginger Trotter, marketing and

More than 300 costumes, adorned production for Angelina Arts in Swarobski crystals, handmade Alliance.

"The tickets are not reserved seats but, instead, are called Rush tickets, and selling these tickets in New York on Broadway or in most theater districts is a common practice," Trotter said.

Kristie Bailey, box office/business manager for Angelina Arts Alliance, said Rush tickets are a "great opportunity to get to see a sold-out performance at a super price." Rush ticket holders may end up on the front row or in a premium seat for $20.

"There is no guarantee of a seat, so I guess Rush ticket buyers are risk-takers," she said. "If they go in the theater and do not find a seat, they may return to the box office and get their $20 back. So far no one has returned a Rush ticket."

Rush tickets are only available if a performance is sold out.

"We are very excited to be coming to Lufkin," Sierra-Grobbelaar said.
