

SNPA'S LEADERSHIP MENTOR PROGRAM

The NEX GEN program is designed to give newer executives or those with executive leadership potential the opportunity to grow both personally and professionally. The program offers a variety of events and activities throughout the year designed to strengthen participants' industry knowledge, professional relationships, analytical skills and aptitude for innovation. The capstone of this program is the pairing of participants with a seasoned industry expert from outside his or her own company in an ongoing mentorship throughout the year.

Please submit your completed application with a current resume, high-resolution photograph and a reference letter from your general manager or publisher to: Howard Hoffman, SNPA, 3680 N. Peachtree Road, Suite 300, Atlanta, GA 30341. Or, email to: Howard.Hoffman@snpa.org

Newspapers whose candidates are accepted into the NEX GEN Mentor program agree to pay $750 as a commitment fee and pledge to grant time for their participants to attend the 2015 and 2016 SNPA News Industry Summits, and to complete all NEX GEN assignments as outlined in the syllabus.

It is understood that the SNPA Foundation will subsidize most travel expenses to attend these meetings, including hotel rooms, registration fee, most meals and up to $300 for the purchase of airplane tickets.

Participants understand that their newspapers are making a commitment to their futures. Newspapers will be encouraged to stipulate that participation in the NEX GEN program carries an obligation to remain at the sponsoring newspaper for at least one year after the completion of the mentorship.

Mentors also agree that their participation is not an invitation to recruit the executives who are assigned to them.
